

Duty of Disclosure

“When you apply for insurance you have a legal duty of disclosure to the insurer to truthfully disclose all information that is relevant and/or material to the insurer so as to enable it to decide whether to provide this insurance and if so on what terms. You have this duty every time your policy renews and whenever you make changes to your policy. If you breach this duty, the insurer may elect to avoid your policy from inception or last renewal date. This means that your policy will be treated as if it never existed. The duty to disclose relevant or material information is not limited to the questions listed in the proposal if a proposal form is completed. Please ask us if you are not sure whether you need to disclose information.”
